

On July 11, 2019 the Friends of White Oak were led on a tour of the new Adventist White Oak Medical Center which opens on August 25th. Quite amazing with the details such as the re-claimed White Oaks from the site, made into benches and board room tables; stone work and the efficient design of the emergency room. Everything is state of the art and the construction is Lead Gold.

